

BY-LAW NO. 7

SOUTH AFRICAN INTRUDER DETECTION SERVICES ASSOCIATION

REQUIREMENTS FOR A SPECIALISED SECURITY SERVICE

March 2012

FOREWORD

The purpose of By-Law 7 is to determine a set of minimum standards and requirements pertaining to those members who operate a specialised security service and who are offering, to members of the public, a valuable and important service of an extremely dangerous nature. In providing such a service the Specialised Service companies are putting themselves and their staff at great risk and it is therefore essential that certain minimum standards are achieved for the protection of both the member company, its Officers, its clients and members of the public.

With due regard being given to the exigencies of its business and to circumstances beyond its control, the duty requirement of the Specialised Service company is to provide a tactical approach in its mission to minimise the risk of loss, injury or damage caused by transporting, surveillance, protection, burglary or attack, with no warranty or guarantee whatsoever that the said Service company will succeed in its mission.

Specialised Services for the purpose of this by-law will include all armed reaction services not covered by Bylaw 3, and shall include the following services: Asset in Transit Services, Bank Security, Close Protection Services (where vehicles are used), Surveillance Services (where vehicles are used), or any other security service involving the use of vehicles and such service does not fall within the ambit of By-law 3.

The requirements of this category of membership are dealt with under separate headings:
